

Easy Charging

Charge your vehicle with a DC charger. You just need to activate the Electric Parking Brake and plug the vehicle to the charging station.

You can opt for slow overnight charging and have your vehicle ready for the following day or alternatively with a high power charging during drivers' mandatory break boosting the vehicle range in a very short time.

